

Shanna called the meeting to order at 6:03pm

Introductions all around

Last meetings minutes were motioned to be approved by Jenna, seconded by Katie

Principals Update:

- School year off to great start
- Over 40 new students
- Book reading pictures are looking great & creating a wonderful mosaic in the hall
- Each month there will be a focus on all the different continents (art, music, the culture, book from a native author, etc) throughout all the classes
- Reading levels have been going down across the board since Covid. New focus & push on reading skills & phonics has started this week for 1-5
 - K begins next week after some more adjusting
- There will also be a focus on:
 - Bullying, learning about what that looks like, how to handle it
 - Weapons: no drawing them, no threatening or jokes - being reminded of the dos & don'ts
 - All classroom visits on these topics need to be completed by 10/1

Teacher's Update:

- No teacher at this meeting

Treasurer's Report:

- Budget did not change much for this new school year - maintain & growth year
- Fun Run with the specialists!
 - With this we commit to:
 - Roller skating budget increasing from $500 to $800
 - The company raised the skating donation from $5 to $8
 - Cover Field Day costs
 - Any remaining profits will be allotted into the PTA budget
 - To be held at school during specialists time
 - Super Me theme
 - How to take other methods of money, send an envelope home?
 - Do everything by the book, following guidelines
 - Susan will help cover goodies & prizes for this event
 - Volunteers needed for small shifts throughout the day
 - Families can also come cheer them on
- Child Care budget for during PTA meetings will be absolved - not necessary

Budget approved by Lindsey, seconded by Katie

News:

- Back to the Books
 - Food trucks will be here, book swap, spiritwear for sale
- Staff Dinners
 - Jenna offered to help organize this
- Book Fair - new chair
- North Star Mini donuts - hopefully for conference nights
- FMSC at Woodbury Lutheran
 - SIPS said no, but we can do this through PTA
 - Would keep the religion out of it
 - Like the idea, we need details
 - Is there a minimum we need to hit?
 - A different time maybe?
- RO Bond Team: Susan needs volunteers to join the 9/18 meeting

There were no additional comments questions or concerns
